The most physical canyon in the Ardèche

Duration of the activity :
5h30

Difficulty :
Difficult

At the heart of the Borne valley in the Tanargues range, you will discover the most physically demanding canyon in the Ardèche. After a 10 minutes walk, you will enjoy numerous jumps (up to 8 m), several swimming sections and a single abseiling passage which you may omit if you wish. This full-day tour is physically very demanding. Including a return walk of 45 minutes. There is a break for a picnic. It is intended only for participants in a fit, healthy physical condition, for 12 years and over.

Walk there : 15'

Walk back : 45'

Personal equipment supplied :

Helmet, full wet suit, socks, shoes, harness. Waterproof container and a bag to carry your picnic.

Group Equipment supplied :

Ropes, medical kit, watertight container.

Bring :

Swimwear, towel, a picnic and a bottle of water.

Warning :

Participants must know how to swim and be in good physical condition. It is necessary to walk on a variety of terrains. Inform your guide of any health problems.

Acces

From Aubenas, follow the RN102 towards Le Puy to Lalevade d'Ardèche. At the roundabout on entering the village, turn left towards Jaujac. Here, follow signs to La Souche and Col de la Croix de Bauzon (RD19). At the col, continue on the RD19 for 3 km. At the crossroads, turn left towards Loubaresse (RD24). After 1.2 km, turn right towards Les Chambons. Drive through Le Chambon and continue through the woods on the small tarmacked road. After 1.5 km, you will see a sign "L'Escalade en Ardèche". This is our meeting point. From Aubenas : 1 hour 10 min / 51 km.

What to do nearby?

Here you can discover the Tanargue range as well as the sources of the Ardèche river either on foot or by bike. You can eat and drink at the Auberge de la Croix de Bauzon. Splendid view at the col de Mayrand, 15 minutes from the starting point: on clear days, it is possible to see the sea.
